Privacy Policy

Breezy Growth LLC · Effective October 29, 2026

This policy explains how Breezy Growth LLC ("Breezy Growth", "we", "us") collects, uses, and protects personal information through our websites, client portal, products, and services.

1. Information we collect

From clients and customers: name, business details, email, phone, billing details, onboarding information, materials you provide, account and portal activity, and communications with us. Payment card and bank details are collected and stored by our payment processors, mainly Whop, and are not stored by us.

From website visitors: device, browser, and usage information, and anything you submit through forms, checkouts, or scheduling links.

Business contact data: to deliver outbound programs, we process business contact information about people at companies, such as name, job title, company, and business email address, obtained from commercial data providers and public sources.

2. How we use it

To provide, deliver, and improve our products; to run and report on client campaigns; to process payments and prevent fraud; to communicate with you; to keep records of delivery; and to meet legal, tax, and security obligations.

3. Who we share it with

We share information with service providers that operate on our behalf, including payment processing (Whop), electronic signature, email sending and deliverability, data enrichment and verification, hosting and databases, scheduling, analytics, and AI processing providers. They may use it only to provide their services to us. We may also disclose information when required by law, to enforce our agreements, or in connection with a sale or reorganization of our business.

4. We do not sell personal information

We do not sell personal information. Business contact data we process for a client campaign is used for that client's outreach and is not provided to other clients as a list.

5. Outreach recipients

If you received an email from us or on behalf of one of our clients and do not want further contact, reply asking not to be contacted or email travis@breezygrowthai.com. We stop contacting you and add your address to our suppression list.

6. Cookies

Our websites use cookies and similar technologies for essential functions, analytics, and measuring advertising. You can control cookies in your browser settings.

7. Retention

We keep information as long as needed to provide our products, keep records of delivery, meet legal and tax obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

8. Your rights

Depending on where you live, you may have the right to access, correct, delete, or receive a copy of your personal information, to object to or limit certain processing, and to opt out of certain uses. California residents have these rights under the CCPA and will not be discriminated against for using them. To make a request, email travis@breezygrowthai.com. We will verify the request and respond within the time the law requires.

9. Security

We use reasonable administrative and technical safeguards to protect information. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure.

10. Children

Our products are intended for businesses and adults. We do not knowingly collect information from children under 16.

11. International users

We are based in the United States, and information is processed in the United States.

12. Changes

We may update this policy by posting a new version with a new effective date.
